VOL 2 NO 2

Flying Pond Gallery

WINTER 2021

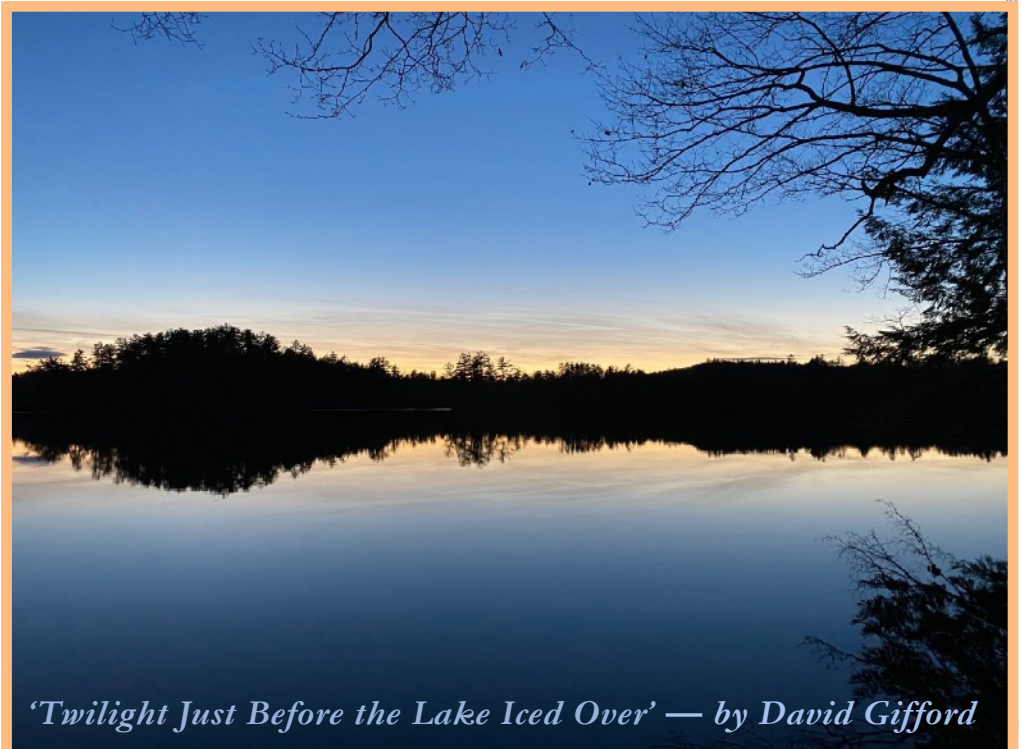

“Not your typical game of ‘fetch’ as Emilie tosses a high one for labradoodle Luna. The snowball generally bursts in Luna’s face each time!”

— Beth Trehu

‘Jumping for a Snowy Snack’ — by Beth Trehu

“Although there are stark differences between summer & winter on Flying Pond, the common thread amongst all seasons is that there always seems to be a vantage point with something interesting to watch”

— David Gifford

‘Twilight Just Before the Lake Iced Over’ — by David Gifford

— by Lynda Twitchell

*“ Missing
Saturday morning
coffee hour!
Hoping these doors
Spring Open
after the thaw! ”*

— Lynda Twitchell

‘Winter Tracks’ — by Nancy Turner

‘Cross Country Skiing’ — by Karen Kurkjian

“ Enjoying sunny blue skies & fresh snow, a skier glides across Flying Pond accompanied by his joyful furry companion. ”

— Karen Kurkjian

“ Flying Pond is the perfect place for a Winter getaway with friends! ”

— Pat Thompson

*“ Relaxing
by the fire,
staying warm,
watching
listening to the eagles.
I love
Flying Pond! ”*

A Message from the Editors

We are happy to present this special edition of the FPIA newsletter. Thanks to all contributors for the terrific photos, inspiring quotes and everything Flying Pond! We enjoy viewing the lake, Mt. Vernon and Vienna from your perspective!

'Snowy Isle' January 24 — by Lynda Twitchell

'Fish On' January 24 — by Chad Dwelley

“ The meadow next to the Dr. Shaw Memorial Library affords a great view of McGaffey Mountain, the highest peak in Kennebec County at 1,320 feet. The meadow also has great sledding this winter! ”

— Tom Ward

'Sledding Meadow' — by Tom Ward

— by Pat Thompson

“Dawsey (age 2) & Dobie (age 7) like to hike up the snowmobile trail from Minnehonk Lake to the junction near the Flying Pond Variety Store trailhead. They snow snorkel up, & run back!”

— Tom Ward

‘Dawsey & Dobie’ — by Tom Ward

“We anxiously waited for a fish to bite & we were unlucky in catching our dinner!”

— Pat Thompson

‘Blueberry Fields on Vienna Mountain’— by Karen Kurkjian

“Blueberry fields turn a brilliant red in autumn but retain much of their beauty in winter, accentuated by a coat of snow & stone walls on Vienna Mountain.”

— Karen Kurkjian

'Birthday Party Preparations' — by Chad Dwelley

“ My family and I love spending time on & around Flying Pond in the winter. Between snowmobiling, skiing, ice fishing, & sitting around a nice outdoor fire, there is always something fun to do. ”

— Chad Dwelley

'Charlie Catches a Fish' — by Lori Huot

'Snowy Day' — by Tom Ward

“ It's been a snowy February in central Maine. Here's the Mt. Vernon Community Center after a recent storm. What you can't see behind it is the big ice rink on the lake. ”

“ Now I know where to find the walker if I need one! ” — Claudia Gifford

William & Sylvia Gifford, 'First Flying Pond Skate' — by Claudia Gifford

'Fishing Shanties' — photos by Lynda Twitchell

'Frosty at Sunrise' — by Beth Trehu

'Tracking Tracks' — by Nancy Turner

'Ice Fishermen at Dawn' (-11 degrees) — by Karen Kurkjian

“Ice fishermen have photographers beat when it comes to early rising;
this crew was all loaded up & heading to their favorite spot just before sunrise at subzero temperatures!”

— Karen Kurkjian
